

Our List of Premiums.

As an inducement for our friends to exert themselves in behalf of extending the circulation of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, we have concluded to make the following liberal offer of Premiums:

To the person sending us the cash for 200 new subscribers, we will present AN ELEGANT PARLOR ORGAN, of superior make, worth at the Factory $275 00.

For 150 new subscribers we will give a HANDSOME GOLD WATCH, valued at $175.

For 100 new subscribers we will give a No. 1 NEW SEWING MACHINE, worth $85.

For 50 new subscribers we will give a cash prize of FIFTY DOLLARS.

For 25 new subscribers we will give a SILVER WATCH worth $35.

For 20 new subscribers we will give a handsomely bound copy of WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY.

For 10 new subscribers we will give a GOLD PEN AND HOLDER, worth $5, and an extra copy of this paper.

The cash must invariably accompany the names of the subscribers, and must each be for one year at $2 00 or double the number, if for six months. We hope that these extraordinary offers will be appreciated by our friends, and that they will exert themselves in aiding us to extend our already good circulation. For a young lady desiring an Organ or a Sewing Machine, we know of no easier way of getting it, than by a little work in a good cause. We are determined that our subscription list shall equal that of the largest weekly paper in Kentucky, and shall spare no exertion or expense to make it so. Lend us your aid and there is no such word as fail. To those desiring to become agents, we will furnish the necessary blank receipts, &c., on application.

THE JOINT COMMITTEES.—It is reported on good authority, that the Senate and House Joint Committees have at last agreed upon a plan of counting the electoral vote in Congress, which plan is said to be for a committee of five members from each branch of Congress, with five of the senior Judges of the Supreme Court, to act, and to whom are left the counting and admitting of such electors as are shown to have been fairly elected. Only in case the committees of the two Houses fail to agree on any point, are the Judges to decide. All of the Joint Committee were agreed on this plan except Sitting Bull Morton, the Radical Indiana Senator, who will never agree to any thing fair, or to any thing affording even the shadow of a chance for Tilden to be declared President. This proposition will be laid before the entire Senate and House, for ratification or rejection. Of course hot debates will ensue, modifications and amendments offered to the plan, and whether or not, it, or any similar procedure will be finally adopted, is one of those things which no fellow can find out. Our notion is, that the Committees have come to a conclusion rather prematurely, as they should have awaited the final reports of the Southern Committees. However, they are wiser and better posted than we are, and we hope for good results from their honest and seemingly earnest endeavors to serve the whole country to the best of their ability.

The Kentucky Observer, the handsome and sprightly off-spring of the defunct Observer and Reporter, made its appearance last Friday, bright and shining as a new pin. The "patent outside" has been abandoned, new and handsome type takes the place of old, while the general make up, tastefully displayed advertisements, and entertaining and well written editorials and local, go to show that our old friend, Charlie Nield, is a born newspaper man. The senior editor, Jno. Charles Thompson, has retired, leaving Mr. Nield in entire control. His friends here (and their name is legion) join us in congratulation at his evident success and wish him a heap more of the same sort.

REV. DR. BROOKS, pastor of the largest Presbyterian Church in St. Louis, west over to the Northern branch of that church, from the Southern, last week, taking with him four-fifths of his congregation. The remaining fifth will institute suit for the church property, which is large and valuable. These unfortunate ecclesiastical divisions will continue so long as the church is divided.

A foul but uneducated mother in Florida named her baby "Neuralgia." She had seen the name on a medicine bottle, and it being novel to her, she adopted it. Being told what it meant she is now considering the propriety of changing it to Meningitis.

COMMENTING ON GRANT'S recent letter to Gen. Ager at New Orleans, declaring, if either government of that State must be recognized by the President of the United States, it must be Packard, the Courier-Journal of Tuesday, has the following in an outspoken and timely article. There is back-bone in the article, and if a similar feeling pervades the breasts of all Democrats in the country, Tilden, as President, and Nicholls, as Governor, will have no trouble in being inaugurated in their respective offices.

"Of course the cry will be raised that the expression of such views means rebellion against the constituted authorities of the United States. This scare-crow of 'constituted authorities' is becoming very much attenuated. When the 'constituted authorities' become usurpers and lend themselves to such schemes as are presented in the Packard and Chamberlain pretensions, they ought to be resisted. Nothing has been gained by submission. Submission always emboldens usurpers and conspirators against liberty. The Kellogg government was pronounced a fraud and a sham by both houses of Congress when both houses were Republican. It was set up and maintained by bayonets. The people of Louisiana patiently submitted when Federal bayonets came to the rescue. What they have got for their patient submission is a new usurpation with bayonets to protect it on the plea of preservation of the peace, and an assurance from the president of the United States that he intends to support the new sham and fraud. Of course, if the people of this country prefer peace to free government and civil liberty they ought to submit to these and all other things. But if they propose to preserve their liberties and free government, the present indications are that they will have to strike for some time, and the present seems as convenient an occasion as any other. If the people of Louisiana resist President Grant's attempt to thrust upon them a sham government, and in the end are not successful, they will not be any worse off than if they quietly walk out at the point of the bayonet, and they will at least enjoy the satisfaction of having done something heroic.

Since the war soldiers of the United States have never fired on citizens. Our army has its feelings and sympathies, and it has not yet been brought squarely down to the test of firing on citizens struggling for their rights. If it has no sympathies, and is merely a blind tool of usurpers and conspirators, it ought not to be regarded with any sentimental consideration."

When a war cloud arises in any part of Europe, however small the cloud may be, it widens and extends over the entire Continent. Like a bundle of frail nerves, if one part is touched, the whole mass is thrown into agitation. Such has been the result of the Russo-Turkish war, and the end is not yet. A whole Continent has been convulsed by a touch of war in Turkey. England and Russia have been, and still are, like ravenous wolves, each seeking to devour the Turkish domain. Meantime, the poor soldiers fall victims to Royal blood-thirstiness.

The Cincinnati Southern Railroad Trustees have petitioned for additional compensation, and the Enquirer ironically suggests that the city present the road to them as part payment for services rendered, and after a while when the country becomes more prosperous, pay them the remainder. It does seem that the big pay already awarded them, should satisfy men, who do as little as they do. They have delayed repeatedly, the progress of the road by their many differences of opinion, and the public have long since voted them a set of nuisances in toto.

On Sunday last, the ice that has gorged the Ohio and its tributaries for about a month, commenced breaking up, causing fearful destruction to boats and other property along those streams. Millions of dollars worth have been destroyed, hundreds of coal boats have been sunk, and the probability is, that the cities along the Ohio, will suffer a severe coal famine. Seven steamers were sunk, and a number of others were more or less injured. River men are blue.

SINCE the Hon. George W. Julian left the rotten old Radical ship, the Rads assert that he is a traitor, and left their party because he could not get a fat office. That is their opinion of every honorable man who sees fit to abandon them to their idols, and join with a party that is trying to weather the storm which threatens a total wreck of their liberties.

KENTUCKIANS have at last realized the fact that railroads are essential to the prosperity of their State, and they are using efforts to aid in building more of them. Even the poorer counties show a desire to help on with such good and lasting improvements. In a few years Kentucky will be equal to any Border State in railroad facilities.

The Lebanon Standard has an account of the murder of Aaron, Martin by George A. Edwards, in Green County, a few days since. No reason is assigned for the deed. Edwards is regarded as a bad man. A Sheriff's posse is in pursuit of him.

Intest News.
The Senate and House Committees have finally agreed on the counting of the electoral vote, a plan of which we give elsewhere—Morton and Hinton, are only opposed. The signs are, that it will pass both Houses of Congress. The House has ordered the arrest of the Returning Board hellions of Louisiana to be brought before the House to answer for contempt. All is quiet in New Orleans, and no danger of a collision is apprehended. Packard's Legislature is about to dissolve. Swarms of delegates were pouring into Louisville yesterday, and all is enthusiasm. Probability that Hon. Cassius M. Clay will be chosen permanent President. The Senatorial contest in Illinois has not yet been decided. Palmer's chances are good to succeed Logan. The chances yesterday were in favor of Hon. for Senator from Massachusetts—ballotting is still progressing. The Circuit Court of Florida, have decided that the Tilden electors have carried that State. Chandler refused to answer concerning those telegrams, claiming exemption as counsel for the conspirators. A dispatch from Jacksonville, Florida, says that James Gordon Bennett, was there on Wednesday. The rumor was that he had gone to Europe since the duel. The New Orleans Republican, an organ of Radical knaves, has suspended for want of patronage. This shows how the thing is working in the Pelican State. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad has purchased the Cecilian Branch of the Paducah and Southwestern Railroad, and now controls 967 miles of road. The Union Trust Company, was yesterday victimized out of $64,000 by a cleverly executed forgery. Detectives are busily working up the case.

It was such a wonderful strain on the constitution of Burton, of the Spencer Journal, to handle the scissors with so much vigor, and always forget to credit articles he thus purloined, that he had to get an assistant, and now that able paper has two scissors editors, and still depends on its old stand-by, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, for editorials. We noticed several in their last issue, taken intact from us, but if it helps the poor fellows any, they are welcome to them. Once last year, we counted as many as eighteen of our articles in one issue of the Journal, and not a single one was credited. Each appeared, too, in the editorial column of that paper. We'll venture the Spencer Journal won't copy this.

BARRING its untrue and greatly exaggerated cartoons, Harper's Weekly newspaper is the best illustrated weekly in the country. Blot out Eugene Lawrence's miserable lies which he writes, and the paper would be quite respectable in its editorial department. Mr. Curtis, editor-in-chief, inclines to conservatism all the while, but the affraid Lawrence, the writer of lies, if not the father of them, and Tom Nast caricatures, are enough to disgust even a decent Republican, to say nothing of the women and children of the country, into whose hands the Weekly falls.

We have received from the Superintending physician of the Lunatic Asylum at Lexington, Dr. R. C. Chenuit, the annual report of the condition of that Institution. From it, we learn that there are at present 534 patients. Only four physicians are in attendance, and complaint is justly made that there are not more. The Pennsylvania hospital for the insane, has one physician for every 70 patients, while ours has but one for every 180. The Asylum is reported to be in an excellent sanitary condition.

HENRY WARD BEECHER, the great preacher, was jealous of Dr. Deems, the minister to whom Vanerbilt gave $25,000 by his will. Deems said that the Commodore had a "child-like faith in Christ," and Beecher said he had no faith at all. If the dead millionaire had left a big sum to Beecher, the Plymouth pastor would have extolled his supreme excellencies.

UNITED STATES Marshal Jno. Wyatt, recently arrested six illicit whiskey distillers in Green County, and put them in jail at Campbellsville. While thus incarcerated, a mob of some 15 or 20 surrounded the jail and demanded the release of the prisoners. Wyatt defied them to attempt their release and showed fight. The cowardly mob retired.

OUR thanks are due our old friend, Capt. W. J. Wash, for an invitation to attend a grand ball to be given at Ford's Eutaw Hotel, Baltimore. Those of our readers that remember the handsome and smiling Captain, will be interested in knowing that he is chief manager of the above splendid hotel, and is growing richer and handsomer daily.

The following Senators have been recently elected: Governor Garfield, Democrat, from Arkansas, to succeed a Radical; Isom G. Harris, Democrat, from Tennessee; Wm. Windom, of Minnesota; Thos. W. Ferry, of Michigan; and J. G. Blaine, of Maine.

MR. MOODY took up a collection in Chicago, the other night, to aid the Young Men's Christian Association in paying off a debt on Farwell Hall, and got $67,000.

W. G. SHARP, who killed Henry Harris, a year ago, in Louisville, was arrested in Dallas county, Texas, a few days ago, and brought back to Louisville, Wednesday.

Yes, Bro. Deering, as poor as we are, we can't steal, at least, it has never been found out on us yet.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.

Jno. Bright sold to Abraham Bro's 1 yoke cattle weighing 3,000 lbs, at 2 1/2.

WANTED.—To purchase a good Milch Cow. Apply to the Editor of this paper.

JACK BOSLEY, of Lincoln, sold to John Hall 17 head cattle, average 1,000 lbs; 15 of them at 4 1/2 and 2 at 4.

GEO. ALFORD, of Lincoln, sold to John D. Harris, of Madison, 30 feeding cattle, averaging 1133 pounds, at 4 1/2 cents.

Dr. John B. Owsley's sale of stock, crop, &c., takes place on the Pennington farm, near Crab Orchard, on next Tuesday, the 23rd.

At Georgetown last Monday cattle sold at advanced rates over former quotations. 250 head were on the market, and mostly sold at 4 to 4 1/2.

Best stock Males worth $75 to $100 in Marion county. Thos. Ryan sold two head fat cattle, weight 2150, at 3 1/2 cents.—[Times and Kentuckian.]

Uncle Jerry Maxwell, arrived from the Tennessee Mountains yesterday, with 98 head of fine mountain cattle. He has them at present, on the farm of Mr. Otis Newland.

The Richmond Register says that Ballard & Dunn have purchased of G. J. White 40 6-year old mules at $127 50 per head to ship to New Orleans. They expect there to get at least $200 for them.

The cost of snow which laid on the ground so long, did much good to the small grain crops of wheat and rye. A warm rain fell on Tuesday, and the grain looks green and flourishing.

Jno. Jones, of Lincoln, sold 350 head well fed mountain sheep to Jno. W. Poor, of Garrard, at 4c. The price of sheep has advanced greatly since the season commenced, and is still tending upward.

The fine young yearling Shorthorn, sold by C. M. Clay, some time since, to Captain Simms, of Woodford county, for $5,000, died the other day. It was to have been delivered to the purchaser next month.

At the stock sales in Lexington last Saturday, 33 head of yearling cattle brought $30 per head; 60 2-year olds went for $43 per head, and a lot of fine steers, averaging 1500 pounds, sold at 4 1/2 cents; milch cows brought from $35 to $50.

Yesterday's quotations of the Cincinnati Live Stock Market, gives common cattle from $2 25 to $2 75; medium $3 to $4; best shippers $4 50 to $5 25; demand strong and prices tending upward. Best hogs bring $6 90 and Sheep range from 3 to 5 1/2 cents per pound gross.

J. B. OWENS has an Alderly Bull which he will "farm out" at $3 per cow, and allow the farmer to breed to him until his cow has a calf. His animal is thoroughly bred, and this breed is known as the best milk and butter stock in the world. The animal is convenient to town.

Farmers and house-keepers generally, complain that their hens have been laying but few eggs for the last six weeks. The reason of the failure is, that, owing to the snow and frozen ground, the chickens have been unable to get grass, gravel, &c., and other eggs producing food. Now that the weather has greatly moderated, there will be an abundance of this much needed article in the culinary department, especially if the hens are fed, but not too much, on wheat screenings or meal, once or twice a day.

Tribute of Respect.
Whereas, God in His Providence has seen fit to remove from our midst, by death, our esteemed friend and brother, Levi S. Moore, a member of Standard Church, who died at this life January 12th, 1877, in the 72nd year of his age. Therefore,

Resolved That it become us to bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, and for the good of His creatures.

Resolved That in the death of Brother Moore, the Church has lost a devoted friend and member; the Church a constant advocate; his neighbors a safe and wise counselor; his family an affectionate head and companion; one who always took delight in providing for them the comforts of life, both temporal and spiritual; and who had established a character in his respect(s) worthy of imitation by all who knew him.

Resolved That we hereby tender to his aged companion, children, and relatives, our heartfelt sympathies in this, their hour of sorrow and bereavement.

Resolved That these resolutions be published in the Interior Journal, and a copy be furnished the family of the deceased.

A Card.
CRAB ORCHARD, KY., Jan. 11, 1877.

Editor Interior Journal:
Through the medium of your paper, I desire to state to the public that I am still to be found at the post of duty in the town of Crab Orchard, in my wellknown seraglio which my owner has assigned to my exclusive use. I am still the beautiful Black Berkshire with the magnificent proportions, for which I am so deservedly famous. I am a thoroughbred; my sire was Harry Dunn's celebrated six hundred pounder; my dam can be pedigreed through the herds of Andy Rice and Shumach, of Garrard, and Tom Woods, of Boyle. I have the white spot in my forehead, four white feet, and the white tip upon a caudal protuberance, that gracefully curls over the most magnificent hams that ever ornamented any of the porcine genus. For symmetry of form and peerless beauty, I am unrivaled.

I will be permitted to pay my devotions to the females of my kind for two dollars, but I now protest against the clandestine practice some have of introducing themselves unknown to my owner. Such a modus operandi brings no corn, to General Vandorn.

Last year was the first year that I entered the Mohammedan's paradise, and yet I made my owner $120, and the whole estate of the town, and the rural pastures for miles around, are now adorned with living evidences of my amatory prowess!

GENERAL VANDORN,
By his amanuensis,
FONTAINE F. BOBBITT.

There's old John Bull, who rules across the sea; And Old Bull who plays upon the fiddle; And Sitting Bull, of whom we all have heard; And Stock-Jab Bull, who scares the Stock-Job riddle;

And with the Bulls of various kinds, We're wondering and supposing Which one of all these different Bulls Is author of "Building!"

From where the sapphire waters of the great lakes leave our chill northern shores, to where the mellow sunshine of the Mexican Gulf dallies with coasts of ever-living green and gold, the dirty-faced, clamorous clans are gathering to buy Oval Turkish Bath Soap, at one dollar a dozen.

From close observation, we have concluded that the cold snap has actually frozen the purse-strings of delinquent grocery-eaters. They don't pay up.

The dress of a lady in town was instantly enveloped in flames the other evening, but there was fortunately, no personal injury done. Ladies can not be too cautious while standing before an open grate.—[Interior Journal.]

If solid or rich grease is used, add one fourth less. You may try it by dropping a little in a saucer, and if hard, it is done. You may then pour it into a tub, let it remain until next day, then cut in bars to suit yourself.

MR. DANIEL F. BEATTY, manufacturer and proprietor of the Beatty Piano and Beatty's celebrated Golden Tongue Parlor Organ, Washington, N. J., is certainly a very reasonable and generous man to transact business with. He makes this very fair proposition to any who care to examine his organs, as follows: "If the instrument does not prove satisfactory after a test trial of five days after receiving it, the purchase money will be refunded upon the return of the instrument, and he will pay freight charges both ways." This is certainly an exceedingly generous and safe manner in which to transact business with him. He warrants his instruments for six years. See his advertisement.

REMEMBER THIS—Now is the time of the year for Pneumonia, Lung Fever, Coughs, and fatal results of predisposition to Consumption and other Throat and Lung Diseases. BOESCH'S GERMAN SYRUP has been used in this neighborhood for the past two or three years without a single failure to cure. If you have not used this medicine yourself, go to your Druggists, Bohm's, and ask them to send you a bottle with an order, as follows: "If the instrument does not prove satisfactory after a test trial of five days after receiving it, the purchase money will be refunded upon the return of the instrument, and he will pay freight charges both ways." This is certainly an exceedingly generous and safe manner in which to transact business with him. He warrants his instruments for six years. See his advertisement.

Is the case of W. H. Bell, appellant, against Geo. W. Beathford, appellee, appealed from the Lincoln Circuit Court, the Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the lower Court last Monday.

THE Somerset Stage, due here on Monday evening, did not arrive until about one o'clock, on Tuesday. It was detained by high water in the creek at Cuba. This hardly happens once in a life time.

A. B. ELKINS, for some months past a compositor in this office, is out of a situation. To any one in need of the services of a reliable, sober and industrious young man, we take pleasure in recommending him.

AMONG the gentlemen that went to the Louisville Convention from this point we noticed, J. S. Owens, E. B. Hayden, G. A. C. Rochester, J. B. Owens, J. A. Harris, Theodore Coward, Judge M. C. Sanfey, and others.

THE people of Lincoln county, now have seventy-two Court days in a year, in addition to the various days set apart for Magistrate and Police Courts. Nearly one-fifth of the whole year is thus set apart for litigation.

EAT, DRINK, AND LIVE—I am now prepared, at the old stand of Adam Gessell, to accommodate the public with a good lunch and Ale at all hours. Give me a call and you will come again. Charges reasonable.

MR. J. B. OWENS, of this place, has 30 extra thorough-bred Red Berkshire Pigs for sale. He will fill orders for them at any time, either in pairs or for single pig. His prices for pairs is $20; for choice single pig, $10 to $15.

THE public school for Stanford district, will close its Fall and Winter Session today. Mr. M. D. Hughes taught it during the last few days, in the absence of the regular teacher, G. A. C. Rochester, who went to Louisville on Wednesday.

THE owners of water-mills in this part of the State have now no reason to complain of a want of water. The recent floods have put on a full head of power, which is likely to continue for the balance of the winter and the whole of the Spring months.

MR. LEVI STONE, of this county, in respect to whose death the Grange Order passed useful resolutions, was one of our oldest and most respected farmers. His neighbors will miss his genial presence. He was one of their best friends and counselors.

WE learn from a gentleman just from the Cumberland River, in Pulaski, that Mr. Allen Jones lost one boat loaded with coal, valued at $1000, and $500 in empty boats, and the Elliott Bros. lost about $800 in empty boats. The river is said to be within two feet of the height attained in 1852.

GARRARD COUNTY came mainly to the front on Wednesday. We saw on the train, besides the eighteen delegates to the Convention at Louisville, about as many more solid Democrats that were on their way, to add to the number and dignity of the grandest Convention that ever assembled in Kentucky.

AFTER an exhaustive argument on a motion for a new trial in the case of Goodin's Adm'r. against the L. & N. R. R. Co., the Judge of the Common Pleas Court overruled the motion and the Plaintiff was given time to prepare a bill of exceptions, preparatory to an appeal to the Supreme Court.

IT has been abundantly proven during the past term of Court, that the people of this county need another Civil tribunal, in order to dispose of the accumulated cases on the docket of the Circuit Court. If the new Court had been given Criminal jurisdiction also, but few Civil cases would have been tried at this term.

ANDY YATES, an incorrigible and pugnacious colored individual, was tried before his Honor, Judge Lytle, Wednesday evening, on an indictment for shooting with intent to kill, one Henry James. The case was very ably argued pro and con, by Fontaine T. Fox, Robert and Judge Phillips, and was dismissed. Andy has been in jail nearly a month.

REV. DOCTOR BRECK, Chancellor of Central University, Richmond, Ky., was stricken with congestion of the heart and lungs, the other day, and is quite ill, but he is thought to be in no immediate danger at present. His loss to the fine University that he did so much to build up, would be almost irreparable, and many prayers go up daily for his speedy recovery.

STORY—Next week we will commence a story, to run through a number of issues, entitled "She said him Nay." It is written in elegant style, the tale is told in a pleasingly interesting way, and is a delightful piece throughout. The scene of the story being located at Crab Orchard, and the fact that it is literally true, will make it all the more interesting to our readers. It is written by the well known, and promising authoress, Mrs. Eugenia Dunlap Potts, of Lancaster. Subscribe at once, if you wish the story complete.

THE BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL—We spent a pleasant hour at this School last Sabbath. Mr. Barnes is a model of a Superintendent, for unlike most of them, he does not think his duty done with the opening exercises, but mixes in with the classes, has something pleasant to say to each scholar, and by his winning manner, makes each one feel that he is performing a delightful duty. A pleasing feature of the exercises, is the splendid music. Every body sings with zeal and enthusiasm, and the sweet notes of the new Organ respond to the magic touch of a gifted artist. The school seems to be in a flourishing condition, judging by the number present, and the good work that is now doing will be potentially felt "after many days."

First oysters in all styles, at Hussing's.

It raining would improve this abominable weather, we would agree to have it all right by dinner time to-day.

OUR townsmen, R. W. Lillard, Esq., will leave next week, for Pueblo, Colorado, to be gone several months. Business engagements take him thither.

WEAVER & EVANS have contracted with some neighboring Mills for four hundred barrels of choice Family Flour, which they will have on hand in a few days.

SOME third stole four turkeys from Mr. B. Carson, of the Commercial House, a few nights since; but the old man is not going to let his guests suffer for turkeys on that account.

THREE different Courts have tried one case which was decided in the Common Pleas Court this week, and each time the Plaintiff obtained a judgment. The cost amounts to more than the debt sued for.

WE have received a copy of the Garrard county Democratic resolutions, with request to publish, but as the Convention to which the delegates were appointed convened on yesterday, it is useless now to publish them. The resolutions have the right ring, and speak out in plain terms.

THERE will be a trial of an ejection case at Richmond Junction next Monday. A Mr. C. Munley is in possession of a house and lot belonging to the McAlister estate, and it has been sold to a Mr. Fiddler. Munley refuses to surrender possession, hence the suit to eject him. A jury has been summoned in the case by Officer Bobbitt.

DURING the recent term of Court, it became necessary for one of the members of the Bar to swear to an affidavit in the absence of his client, and the judge demanded that the paper should be sworn to at once. The Attorney said he could not swear to himself, but if the Judge would wait a few minutes he could try to engage the services of some one else who would have no scruples on the subject. His case went over for the want of a proper affidavit.

THE County Attorney for Lincoln county, a thrifty "small farmer," and raises more on a few acres than half of our farmers who make greater pretensions. The past year he raised 200 barrels of corn; 25 acres of wheat; 600 chickens; 47 turkeys; raised over $200 worth of logs; 2,000 head of cabbage, and 90 bushels of potatoes; and other farm products in proportion. What County Attorney in the State can beat the foregoing results? Take courage, small farmers, and profit by the experience of the Hon. F. E. Bobbitt, the aforesaid Attorney.

A TREAT IN STORE—Last week we mentioned the fact that a Cantata would shortly be given at the Court House, here by the pupils of the Stanford Female College. The time has now been set for next Thursday night, the 25th. These Musical Entertainments are both beneficial and entertaining, and we trust that our citizens will show their appreciation by giving these young ladies a liberal support. Our neighbors of the adjoining towns and country, will be supplied compensated should they attend, and we trust that numbers of them will do so. Let the house be crowded.

CHEER UP, LITTLE GIRLS—Our lady readers will know what Geese Live Backing means, whether the gentlemen do or not. It is an article for trimming ladies dresses, and in these days of fashion, no lady who wants to have her toilet look well, can afford to be without it. We invite the special attention of the young ladies at the Female College, to a splendid assortment of this goods to be found at the store of Hayden Brothers. Their stock of it has never been excellent, and their prices are extremely low. They have laid in a fresh supply recently, expressly for the young ladies of Stanford and vicinity.

IT had been known for some time, that Col. J. Warren Grigsby, of Danville, had been very ill in Lexington for several days. He died in that city last Friday, and remains placed in a vault there, to remain until they could be removed to Danville for final interment. Col. Grigsby was widely known and much loved by all who knew him, as a civil and soldier without reproach. He represented the county of Boyle, in the Legislature, and no member of that body paid more attention to the interests of his constituents, or the State at large, than he did. Col. Grigsby will be greatly missed from the social circle and the Bar, of which he was an honored member.

THE Directory of the Louisville and Nashville Railway Company are contemplating the extension of their Knoxville Branch from the terminus at Livingston, in Rockcastle county, to Barboursville, Knox county. We note that there is a feeling on the part of many leading citizens in the counties beyond the terminus, to induce their people to vote a tax on themselves for the purpose of aiding in its extension. The mountain folks need this road badly, and the tax upon them, if spread over a period of several years, would scarcely be felt. Certainly, it would not be oppressive, and the gain to them, in the end, would more than double the tax. Madison, Garrard and Lincoln counties, all contributed to the building of the Richmond Branch, and we are sure that their citizens do not regret that they did so. Laurel and Knox counties, should go to work in earnest, and help to extend the Knoxville Branch.

A PROMINENT MEMBER of the BAR MARRIED—On Tuesday evening last, at the residence of the bride's father, Leo Hayden, Esq., in a quiet and unostentatious manner, the ceremony was repeated that united the lives and destinies of Col. W. G. Welsh and Mrs. Mary E. Worsham. There were no attendants, but a number of the Col's. friends, among whom the legal fraternity was largely represented, was present to congratulate him on his good fortune. The ceremony, which was very impressive, was performed by Elder J. L. Allen, and at the conclusion, the happy pair came to Stanford, and took rooms at the Myers' House. Col. Welsh is one of the most gifted and talented men in our State, and his marriage is a source of pride to our community. His bride is a young lady of fine talents, and her union with the Col. is a source of pride to our community. His bride is a young lady of fine talents, and her union with the Col. is a source of pride to our community.

Several persons came off of the slippery streets with maimed limbs. The last of the snow was enjoyed by a torch-light sleigh party. New sleds and sleighs are left high and dry, but decidedly damp on the roadsides.

Mrs. Edna Burdett has returned from Texas to her Kentucky friends.

Mrs. Vaughn, of Lebanon, is the guest of Mrs. Charles Sweeney.

Miss Gay, of Woodford, and Miss Price, of Lexington, are still visiting Mrs. Napoleon Price.

LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS.

Hustonsville, January 17th, 1877.

The unprecedented rain of Sunday night, Monday, and Monday night, melted the snow, and materially changed, if it did not improve the landscape. The elastic Hanging Fork disgorged its forces without serious damage to shipping, but to the great disgust of the festive skater. Green River, notwithstanding the strong temperature sentiment of the times, is said to be on the highest and most blistering "high" in which it has indulged in ages. It is reported to have been within a few inches of the railroad bridge this morning.

It is with a feeling of sadness I record the death of R. F. Brown, one of our oldest citizens, which occurred on Thursday night last. Mr. B. was well known in this community, and universally esteemed as a man, a neighbor, and a member of general society.

J. C. Johnston sold on Saturday, 75 head of feeding cattle to Mr. Bowman, of our vicinity, at about 40 cents. Mr. B. bought some 30 head from other parties here, with the design of putting the whole lot on the market at Danville, on Monday last.

Two of our neighbors, each of whom is the father of one child, were returning from Court in a sleigh one evening during the freshet. The Hanging Fork was between them and home. A consultation was held as to the prudence of attempting to ford it. Neither was afraid of the water, but with touching paternal feeling they argued: "We may be drowned—our wives are young and good looking, and would marry again—and the poor children might suffer." This determined them to make a circuit of several miles to avoid the stream. We fear their anxiety for the children, induced them to do great injustice to the wives.

Building seems to be contagious. A few days since, J. S. Morrison and lady, having both left their room for a few moments, little three year old Nellie, who remained within, turned the key and "held the fort." Neither expostulations, promises, nor blandishments, could induce a surrender. At length the Captain got on an upper parties, from which he caught a window, cut out a pane of glass and raised the latch. This is the result of building political parties in the hearing of children.

We notice with interest, that Florida offers a premium to be awarded to her approaching fair, for the best and most intelligent allegator. About 20,000 allegators are annually "swung up" by the best makers of this country. Hopper will please note both items.

GARRARD COUNTY NEWS.

Lancaster, January 18, 1877.

Some few breezes, adverse and otherwise, have stirred the city on the hillside since our last. Tragical, political, religious, legal and witty.

On Thursday evening the comely form of our Lieutenant of the Tower, alias, twenty-thousand-dollar jail, approached the barrel-wicket as usual, to administer creator comfort to the prisoners, when lo! theodoric swung wide, and the cranium of the intruder received a blow from a convict named Bryant, which left "the world to darkness and to him by the space of several hours. The prisoner escaped, and our dilapidated Bailey Nicol Jarvie was an unwilling witness upon the main protestance for some days. The weapon was the "round" of a chair, and it was split into three pieces by the violence of the blow.

It is also our painful duty to sully the page with a fresh murder in the annals of Garrard. On Saturday morning a man named Dishon met, and shot dead, George Austin, of this county, on the "Ox Orchard" turnpike, in front of Mr. Joe Luck's residence. A grudge, of some months standing, seems to have made Dishon afraid to move about unprotected, and the affair culminated as follows. He has not yet been arrested. Mr. Austin was united in marriage a few months ago, to Mrs. Belle S. Anderson.

On Saturday last, the noble army of Democrats met and drew up resolutions with reference to the Convention at Louisville on the 18th inst. The platform was nailed together "strong and hearty," not with the spectral shadow of a seamless Japanese building; but every log came hard and well aimed from the patriotic lungs of the enthusiastic chairman, the Hon. Mat. Walton, and his clan. Col. H. H. Bruce was elected permanent chairman, and Judge R. L. Grinnan Secretary. A number of prominent Democrats were selected as delegates to the Convention, and a universal call made upon whomsoever would join the chorus—"We're coming Father Rutherford, one hundred thousand strong!" Wednesday's train bore the representatives en masse.

Col. Bruce is publicly announced as a candidate for the Senate of Kentucky, and fairly deserves the support of his party.

In a social segregation recently, we looked in upon one of the minor tragedies that mark our way to the tomb. A lovely damsel, whose liquid eyes were like half-drowned blue lilies, bent in fearful alarm above the desiccated corpse of a plump canary bird that had involuntarily surrendered the missing member into the clutches of a feline marauder. Said canary was named in honor of a handsome young barrister of Stanford. We tenderly suggest an epitaph—

He just left this "left of the left; His winsome phoebe had a fatal check, His throat-latch had a fatal check, His soul was a catastrophe.

The Good Templar Feast was a decided failure in numbers; but the managers conducted the programme with admirable taste. A Fortune Teller occurred in her curtained domain, added interest as well as risk to the affair. The universal "sea of glass" was the cause of many absent faces. An impromptu dance terminated the short evening—Messrs. Hemphill and Miller performing on French Horn, and Mr. Sandifer furnishing a guitar accompaniment.

Several persons came off of the slippery streets with maimed limbs. The last of the snow was enjoyed by a torch-light sleigh party. New sleds and sleighs are left high and dry, but decidedly damp on the roadsides.

Mrs. Edna Burdett has returned from Texas to her Kentucky friends.

Mrs. Vaughn, of Lebanon, is the guest of Mrs. Charles Sweeney.

Miss Gay, of Woodford, and Miss Price, of Lexington, are still visiting Mrs. Napoleon Price.

Mrs. E. C. Hopper returned on Friday, from her holiday sojourn at her former home in Cincinnati.

Mr. Wm. Greenleaf has gone to Richmond to take charge of the Express office.

Our lawyers are still going back and forth to Stanford; but though, perchance the "unarmed," they cannot boast of being any longer the "unarmed" when the train describes its usual faithful parabola around the curves.

Commonwealth's Attorney Denny extends his journey as far as Mount Vernon.

The Excelsior Class at the Christian Sunday School received a valuable recruit last Sunday. Said class is composed of six aspiring professional gentlemen.

Dr. Hays' pulpit was filled on Sunday by a student from the Theological Seminary.

The Examination at Franklin Institute is in progress this week, day and night.

Young Edward Sweeney was captured in Dunlap's Lake on Sunday, and rescued by Master George Potts. History affirms that what said delinquents "were about."

The long pending building difficulties of the Christian Church have been at last amicably adjusted. An important meeting of the officers is called for next Thursday.

We have sighted the weather. Will only say we had a slight shower last Monday.

Dr. J. T. Bohon.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 13, 1877.

Mr. Editor:

We see from the INTERIOR JOURNAL, the name of Dr. Bohon mentioned in connection with the candidacy for the Legislature from Lincoln county. We take especial pleasure in recommending the gentleman whose name heads this communication. We have known the Doctor long and well, and can confidently testify to his fealty to the Democratic party. He is, in every respect, a simple pure, self-reliant, a representative man, and when we say this, we have said much in the Doctor's favor. Having served four years in the capacity for which the Doctor is mentioned, we speak not as a novice, but as an expert, and venture to assert that if the Democracy of the proud old county of Lincoln, should nominate and elect the Doctor, they will never have cause to regret their action in the future—he will not only make a popular member, but he will make an effective one. Educated, congenial, high toned, and familiar with the current politics of the county. These are the kind of men the people want, and certainly need at this critical period in the history of our country. Put men in the councils of the State who will not only reflect credit upon themselves, but on their constituents and State. Menor committed to you a man whom you can trust in any position which the people of Lincoln may see proper to place him. He has friends throughout the State who would endorse him for any place to which he would aspire. Hoping that the Democracy will favorably consider his claim when they come to look around for a standard bearer, one whom they can confidently depend upon in the hour that requires ability, to put their faith and flag in the keeping of the young Doctor, Dr. Bohon. Respectfully, &c.
